EMPOWERMENT THROUGH BOOTCAMP

NURSYUHADA BINTI ABDULLAH

Bootcamp Experience : Nursyuhada's bootcamp experience was nothing short of extraordinary. She recalls the day she received an unexpected employment offer letter as the pinnacle of her journey. Despite not having completed her internship, the moment her name was called and she walked up to accept the offer letter felt like a dream. It was a turning point in her life, filled with emotions like happiness, excitement, nervousness, and gratitude. This experience has fueled her eagerness to learn and explore her field further.

Skills Development : When asked about the skills she developed during the bootcamp, Nursyuhada singles out PowerBI. She had previously self-learned the basics but lacked practical experience. The bootcamp not only deepened her understanding but also equipped her with the practical knowledge of data analysis, ETL (Extract, Transform, Load), data cleaning, and data visualization. She appreciates the opportunity to enhance her PowerBI skills, recognizing that such training outside the bootcamp would have been costly for a student like her.

Challenges Overcome : Nursyuhada and her team faced a major challenge during the entrepreneurship shark tank pitch, where they initially struggled with a backward thinking approach, delaying their progress. They had to start over and seek input from mentors and fellow students to identify real pain points. This experience taught Nursyuhada that entrepreneurship isn't solely about creating products or services; it's about solving genuine problems with the support of research and validated data, crucial for attracting investors. Despite setbacks, her team's resilience and determination led them to win the Best Shark Tank Pitch award.

Personal Growth : The bootcamp has had a profound impact on Nursyuhada's personal growth. She now sees herself as more confident and prepared for the working phase and the professional environment.

Bootcamp Impact on Career Goals : Nursyuhada's career goals have been positively influenced by the bootcamp experience. It inspired her to stay up-to-date with technology and IT trends. Additionally, her interactions with professionals from Petronas Digital's cybersecurity department ignited her interest in cybersecurity. She's even considering self-learning cybersecurity alongside her internship. Her determination to become a front-end developer has also been strengthened, and she aims to learn the fundamentals of cybersecurity to broaden her skillset.

Nursyuhada Abdullah Bachelor's degree in Computer Science from UniSZA. Shares her inspiring Bootcamp journey of growth and valuable experiences.

In the world of technology and personal growth, remember this : Be confident in your journey, embrace the power of giving and taking, and always prioritize quality over speed. These principles have been my guiding light through a transformative bootcamp experience.

- Nursyuhada Abdullah

01. Bootcamp Resources and Support :

Nursyuhada praises the bootcamp for its contemporary and Gen-Z tailored resources, support, and materials, highlighting their accessibility and relevance.

02. Favorite Workshop or Activity :

Nursyuhada's favorite experience was the Design Thinking activity with Petrosains. It united students from diverse educational backgrounds to address community issues. Her team achieved second place in this activity.

03. Bootcamp Takeaways :

Nursyuhada's bootcamp journey imparts three key lessons: the value of self-confidence and ongoing self-improvement, the importance of mutual teaching and learning, and the priority of quality over speed in achieving success. These lessons provide a well-rounded perspective on personal and professional growth.

04. Recommendations for Improvement :

Nursyuhada suggests accommodating prayer times during the bootcamp's packed schedule by allocating time during tea breaks or ensuring activities end at least 30 minutes before Maghrib to enhance the overall experience.

05. Faculty Influence and Gratitude :

Nursyuhada is deeply grateful to her lecturers for their significant influence on her ambitions. She specifically acknowledges several instructors who inspired her in different areas of computer science and encourages them to continue inspiring and nurturing future talents.

06. Future Plans :

Nursyuhada's internship plan involves excelling in her role, acquiring knowledge, and supplementing it with online certifications. She aims to continually update her resume and LinkedIn profile to showcase her internship and self-study accomplishments.

JOURNEY OF GROWING SELF-CONFIDENCE

MUHAMMAD AIMAN BIN ABDUL ROKIES

Aiman an aspiring student from Terengganu specializing in Manufacturing Engineering Technology with a strong interest in Innovative Design and Technology.

“ In the world of learning and growth, I've discovered that knowledge, risk-taking, and perseverance are the keys to unlocking one's true potential. The bootcamp has been a catalyst for my personal and professional development.”

- Muhammad Aiman

Challenges Overcome :

One of the notable challenges Aiman encountered was managing time effectively within a group of seven members to tackle tasks. He recognized the importance of time allocation in problem-solving and, as a group leader, devised strategies to ensure each task was completed within the stipulated time frame.

Personal Growth :

In terms of leadership, Aiman successfully guided a team of seven members throughout the program. His growth in self-confidence became evident when he confidently delivered presentations in front of an audience of over a hundred program students.

Bootcamp Experience :

For Aiman, the most memorable aspect of the bootcamp was the diverse friendships he forged. He cherishes the involvement of the program staff, who played a pivotal role in its success. Their friendly, sportive, and kind nature created an atmosphere where learning was both enjoyable and engaging. Aiman was also chosen as a member of a distinguished company during this journey.

Skills Development :

Muhammad Aiman's skill set underwent a significant transformation during the bootcamp. He honed his data analysis skills using Microsoft Power BI, learned how to craft a professional resume, and discovered the art of delivering impactful presentations with Microsoft PowerPoint. Furthermore, the bootcamp significantly enhanced his critical thinking, problem-solving abilities, leadership qualities, a self-confidence

Bootcamp Impact :

The bootcamp experience had a profound influence on Aiman's career aspirations and goals. It solidified his commitment to continuous improvement, enhancing his communication skills and leadership. His ultimate goal is to become the best version of himself, and the bootcamp's diverse knowledge and learning opportunities contribute to his journey.

Resources And Support :

The program's resources and support played a vital role in Aiman's learning journey. Facilitators provided detailed and helpful guidance, such as the step-by-step instruction on using Power BI. The coaches from Seed.Lab contributed valuable insights, fostering an open-minded and comprehensible learning environment.

Favorite Workshop :

Aiman enjoyed the resume-building workshop, the Powerpoint workshop, and the Shark Tank activity. These workshops not only enhanced his skills but also allowed him to connect with his team members on a deeper level, encouraging collaborative problem-solving and idea sharing.

01.

Bootcamp Takeaways :

Muhammad Aiman's key takeaways from the bootcamp are simple yet powerful: always seek knowledge, be open to taking risks, and never give up easily.

Future Plans :

Aiman's future plans revolve around applying the knowledge and skills he acquired during the bootcamp to advance his career, aiming for continuous improvement, and enhanced marketability. It is a clear example of how immersive learning experiences can profoundly influence individuals, paving the way for personal and professional growth. It underscores the impact of innovative programs like this bootcamp.
